

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES

BUDAPEST NEWSLETTER

JANUARY 2011

STATE OF THE UNION 2011

WhiteHouse.gov interactive web portal ►

AP

Dr. TIBOR NAVRACSICS
Deputy Prime Minister of Hungary
Minister of Public Administration and Regional Development

Deputy Prime Minister Navracsics on the International Visitor Leadership Program

In 2011 the Department of State is celebrating the 70th anniversary of the International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP). To celebrate, prominent former program participants from all over the world have prepared messages. Representing Hungary, Deputy Prime Minister Tibor Navracsics speaks about his experience in 2008. Approximately 550 Hungarians have taken part in the program.

Video ►

Transcript ►

Ambassador Kounalakis Presents "Art in Embassies"

In the Art in Embassies program, individuals and institutions from across the United States make available on loan to the State Department art work for display in the official residences of U.S. ambassadors around the world. On January 20, 2011, Ambassador Kounalakis hosted a reception at her residence to inaugurate the Budapest collection containing works by Andy Warhol, Jim Dine, Wayne Thiebaud and Stephen Antonakos.

Ambassador Kounalakis and Zsolt Gál of Samsung (Embassy photo by Attila Németh)

More ►

PhotoGallery ►

Assistant Secretary Philip H. Gordon in Budapest

Assistant Secretary for European and Eurasian Affairs Philip H. Gordon visited Hungary on January 12-14. He met with EU political directors and held bilateral meetings with Hungarian officials. He also met with representatives of non-governmental associations and civil society groups. Assistant Secretary Gordon spoke at the Hungarian Institute of International Affairs on U.S.-EU relations under the Hungarian presidency. Assistant Secretary Gordon delivers his remarks (Embassy photo by Attila Németh)

Full text of his remarks and interviews ►

NEW PUBLICATION

Becoming American: Beyond the Melting Pot

eJournal USA

The United States is a nation of immigrants. Find out how long-time residents and newcomers are finding common ground in three U.S. communities.

Embassy Posts New Information on the H-2A and H-2B Work Visa Programs ►

